BOLD KIDNAPERS SENT TO PRISON

If one wants a wife he should go to her house and take her, whether she be the wife of someone else or not. This is what four Filipinos did for another one and, as a result, the wife hunter and three of his friends have gone to jail and the fifth has been given a suspended sentence.

The Filipinos were charged with having kidnaped one Ramona Rojas and taking her from the home of her husband at Ewa to Honolulu. All were convicted in Circuit Judge Ashford's court late Thursday afternoon. Facarila Lucas was given not less than two years and a fine of $1000; Fidel Delzon will spend the next two years in prison and pay a fine of $500; Sebilo Buen got not less than 18 months and costs; and Emeterio Ayala was sentenced to not less than 15 months and costs. Pantanilla got a suspended sentence of 13 months.

Circuit Judge Ashford expressed regret that the maximum sentence for kidnaping is only two years and a fine. He intimated that at least one of the defendants should spend not less than five years in prison.

DOES NOT FULLY APPROVE JURORS

That he did not entirely approve of verdicts rendered in three murder cases was the comment made by Circuit Judge Ashford today when he excused the members of the jury panel, probably for good.

He called attention to the cases of Tateishi, You Chil Yong and Gregorio Endoso, who were charged with first degree murder but convicted of less severe charges, saying that, in his opinion, all of these men should have been convicted of the capital offense. He said he believed in the old scriptural rule, "An eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth."

However, he sincerely thanked the jurors for the diligent work they have done during the last two months, saying that they have shown by their verdicts and their work that a man, however lowly, will be given a square deal at the hands of a jury in Hawaii. He also complimented the work of the city attorney's office, saying that it had been highly efficient.

DENIES REPORT HE WAS 'SORE'

No statement to the effect that he was "sore" because the bar association failed to endorse him for the supreme bench has been made by Circuit Judge Ashford, he told the Star-Bulletin today.

"I told the members of the Democratic territorial central committee," he adds, "that unless they take some stand and make some recommendations in a case of this importance they are abdicating their functions and are not fit to represent the party."

"But I have not asked anyone for his support nor have I asked the committee as a whole or the national committee to support me. I merely insisted that it was their duty as well as their privilege to support someone and get into the ring without delay."

JOSEPH IS COMING AND BRINGS MORE ANIMALS

Ellis Joseph, the "animal man," is returning to Honolulu and is bringing with him, as he often does, animals and birds. Only this time he is coming from America and his consignments of animals are usually from the other direction.

Joseph will be here on the Niagara and is due December 27. He says that he has a number of bears and in the list includes polar, grizzly, Kodiak, black and cinnamon. He has elk but does not specify whether he has more than one, and he has a large number of Panama parrots and pheasants. All of these he will offer to local animal fanciers before proceeding on his southwestward journey.

LIVING GOES HIGHER

Because of higher prices for all kinds of provisions Japanese restaurants have raised their charges 5 cents. The rate was 15 cents a meal.
